Press Release

MEX Mobile Trading Goes Live

MEX Nepal has launched its state-of-the-art, AX1 trading platform for the apple product, the first of its kind in Nepal. It has launched AX1 MEX Trader – version for iPhone/iPad which is expected to help the traders to manage their trading activities in the palm of their hand. This new application can be downloaded from App store where user can find the application by typing “mexnepal” in the search option. The software can be downloaded for free and does not incur additional charges. For users to practice & get accustomed, Demo version of the same was launched on 29th August, 2013. After Successful Demo trading, Live version has been launched on 16th September, 2013. Successful trading is taking place by the iPhone/iPad users as well. And the feedback for the same is very appreciating.

For and on behalf of the Board of Directors,
